

Police cracks series of cases

 DIPRO

AALO, Nov 5: The Aalo Police has been successful in cracking a series of cases and has arrested several people in this connection.

A police team led by Officer In-charge, Inspector O Tamut and Investigating Officer SI Thungon Tali, arrested the three people for the murder of Dorik Basa, a third year college student of Donyi Polo Government College, Kamki on November 1last.

The accused all school students, identified as Gumba Gara, Oni Samyor and Kento Ngomdir were arrested within 48 hrs of the murder and booked under Aalo PS C/No.127/15 U/S 302 IPC.

Aalo Police arrested one Kento Bagra in connection with C/No. 447/323/384 IPC for extortion and further arrested two students of SFS College Aalo involved in the assault of a lecturer of the said college. The lecturer was assaulted while trying to stop copying during examination.

Meanwhile, the College community and students have appreciated the police action for containing growing crimes and for instilling confidence among the general public.