

City Police in major breakthrough, arrests kidnappers and bank robber

ITANAGAR, May 13: The City Police have arrested Md. Nizamuddin, 24 yrs, Md. Yusuf Ali, 28, Md. Sabbir Ahmed Choudhary, 22, Dado Mosi, 27, and Dari Raju alias Dari Chuksi, 30 years for their involvement in kidnapping incident.

They were involved in the abduction of Govind Sharma, owner of M/s B.M. Trade Agency on 6th April'2015 while he was driving back home from Nirjuli to Banderdewa.

The armed men forcefully entered his car and kept on driving aimlessly for about 2 ½ hrs and ultimately he was taken to Borsala, Assam. He was forcefully locked up in a room with his hands tied and his eyes plastered.

A ransom call for Rupees One Crore was made from victims' mobile phone to his employees and family members. On receipt of the complaint, a case was registered at P.S. Naharlagun immediately for investigation. The victim was released after two days. Ransom money of Rs.50.00 Lakhs was allegedly paid.

Police says that the victim's family had not informed the police about any monetary transaction. However, the police had become suspicious and pursued the case suo-motto, despite the fact that the victim's party was not co-operating with the police due to fear.

The accused have been taken into police custody for recovery of money, and arms & ammunition. One revolver and car have been seized while the efforts are on to recover the ransom amount and the other associates. Interrogation has revealed that they were planning to commit more crime of such modus operandi. The arrest of all accused persons in this sensational case has not only prevented the occurrence of other kidnapping case by same gang but will also deter other criminals to indulge in such crime said Director General of Police Arunachal Pradesh in a release.

Meanwhile, acting on a tip off, City Police led by Techy Hanyir, SDPO Itanagar, Inspector T. Bage, OC PS Itanagar, SI W. Wangsa and Section of 3rd IRBn personnel under the close supervision of Dipankar Mishra, SP Capital carried out raid at Songlo-3 Village yesterday at midnight and arrested wanted accused Gichik Tachung and recovered three country made Pistols, thirty three rounds of live ammunitions and one mobile phone from his possession.

Gichik Tachung (28 years) of Lengdik village under Tali Circle of Kra-Dadi district was absconding after committing AP Rural Bank, Ganga robbery case vide Itanagar PS Case No.293/13 u/s 394/34 IPC r/w Sec.25(1)(a) Arms Act. His associates had already been arrested earlier. The city police continued to make efforts and deployed sources for two years and finally succeeded in arresting him. Gichik Tachung is a professional robber and he is reportedly to have arrived in the city with a plan to commit robbery again.

The DGP, AP has appreciated the team work of Dipankar Mishra, SP Capital, Techy Hanyir, SDPO, Itanagar, Jummar Basar, SDPO, Naharlagun and SI K. Yangfo (IO) for their professional work and also he appreciated the timely apprehension of Gichik Tachung with arms and ammunition.
