

City police nabs 'absconding' criminal

ITANAGAR, Oct 2: The city police today claimed to have solved two separate criminal cases registered with the Itanagar and Doimukh police stations with the arrest of one Hiba Siku, a native of Hiba I village under Sangram police station in Kurung Kumey district, wanted in both the cases.

Acting on a tip-off, a team of capital police consisting of DySP Dipankar Mishra, Itanagar SDPO T Henyir and sub-inspectors K Tao and P Taku under the direction of Capital SP Devendra Arya nabbed the criminal Hiba Siku, a bank robber.

Hiba Siku, involved in Itanagar PS case No 293/13 u/s 120(b)/394/411/201/214 IPC r/w Sec 25(1)(a) Arms Act and Doimukh PS C/N 33/14 u/s 448/307/326/394/34 IPC r/w Sec 25(B)/27 Arms Act, was evading police arrest since last one year.

He was nabbed by the team from Itanagar area early this morning. A huge number of fake passbooks of 'Nana Marketing and Financial Service Private Ltd, G-Extension, Nlg' and other documents were recovered from his possession, police sources said.